Dear Karl:

I thought that you might like to have a copy of the letter that I sent to Mr.

As I told  I will be glad to talk to him and I appreciate your interest in bringing him to my attention.

With every best wish.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hartland:

Thank you very much for your letter which you sent me via Senator Muntt.

I deeply appreciate the patriotic motivation which prompted you to write to me as you did. I will be glad to see you in November or talk to you earlier if you wish. I might suggest that you telephone me (Executive [redacted]) when your plans are made so that we may arrange a mutually convenient date when we could get together.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,
